

TELLING THE LIBRARY'S STORY

Your constituents pay annually $X.00/capita towards library services. The _____ Public Library provides your constituents with:

- ⇒ “x number” of databases which provide online access from home and office (24/7) to articles in thousands of magazines, newspapers and reference books- POWER Library; Learn-a-Test; Philadelphia Inquirer on-line; ACCESS PA statewide catalog ; MCLINC county-wide catalog
- ⇒ “x number” of public workstations where people can access the Internet, do word processing, access their e-mail
- ⇒ “x number” of books read aloud to “x number” of kids during story hour; produced “x number” of children’s programs, including summer reading club and science-in-the-summer for “x number” of children from _____
- ⇒ “x number” of interlibrary loans ordered
- ⇒ homework help for “x number” of students
- ⇒ professional librarians who this year have answered “x number” of questions, by phone, e-mail, fax and in person

TELLING THE LIBRARY'S STORY

Your constituents pay annually $X.00/capita towards library services. The _____ Public Library provides your constituents with:

- ⇒ “x number” of databases which provide online access from home and office (24/7) to articles in thousands of magazines, newspapers and reference books- POWER Library; Learn-a-Test; Philadelphia Inquirer on-line; ACCESS PA statewide catalog ; MCLINC county-wide catalog
- ⇒ “x number” of public workstations where people can access the Internet, do word processing, access their e-mail
- ⇒ “x number” of books read aloud to “x number” of kids during story hour; produced “x number” of children’s programs, including summer reading club and science-in-the-summer for “x number” of children from _____
- ⇒ “x number” of interlibrary loans ordered
- ⇒ homework help for “x number” of students
- ⇒ professional librarians who this year have answered “x number” of questions, by phone, e-mail, fax and in person