WINTER NEWSLETTER

January through March

Oh, the Weather
Outside is Frightful...

...and bookmobiles sometimes just aren't built to cope with the inclement conditions that winter brings.

If the skies are threatening and the forecasts are looking grim, make sure that you check the Montgomery County-Norristown Public Library's website at <http://mc-npl.org> for news of closures or delays. Before setting out, please double-check by calling the library at 610-278-5100, ext 7 (on evenings and weekends, use ext 0).

Hopefully those days will be few and far between, but when you do come visit us, it couldn't hurt to stock up with even more books!

You know, just in case.

The library will be closed on February 17th for Presidents' Day, by George.

And Abe.

...that you can access the library's catalog through your mobile device? Just go to <http://spica.mclinc.org/mobile>

So curl up - and warm up - with some spine-tingling

SUSPENSE

A few years after the turn of the millennium, an author emerged in Spain by the name of Carlos Ruiz-Zafon. Recently translated into English, his "The Cemetery of Forgotten Books" series has transfixed readers around the world. The third and most recent installment, The Prisoner of Heaven, spent more than a calendar year on the bestseller charts of both Europe and the United States.

The Shadow of the Wind, The Angel's Game, and The Prisoner of Heaven comprise the full series. Ask for them by name and we'll bring them to you in the order in which they were written.

Two words - or rather, two authors: Preston and Child. Their latest is White Fire, and if you have not read them before, after devouring Fire you will want to read everything they've written. Intricate plots, atmospheric locales, and great characters make for wonderful winter reading.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATRONAGE

...and best wishes for a healthy, happy 2014.

*Duane, Eileen, Joe, John,
and everyone at Bookmobile and Outreach Services.*
