November 2020

Get to know: ANCESTRY! Wednesday, Nov. 11 at 7PM

This is a great time to do a little digging into your roots!

Ancestry Library Edition is available free for home use with a library card through the end of 2020. Join us by Zoom for a tour of Ancestry and tips to help you started. Please register.

Museum Passes

Several local museums are open to the public with limited capacity. It's a great time to go, especially for free, using one of our passes. It's a good idea to call the library on the day you want to take a pass to make sure it's available and to reserve it.

Passes available now:

Academy of Natural Sciences • Eastern State Penitentiary
Elmwood Park Zoo • Museum of American Revolution
Mütter Museum • National Constitution Center
Univ. of Penn. Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology
Philadelphia's Magic Gardens • Woodmere Art Museum

Storytimes continue! Try our Storytime Facebook group & YouTube channel for read-alouds. Preschool meet Thursdays at 10:30AM by Zoom. Register here!

Kids' virtual yoga classes with Yoga Home continue, thanks to sponsorship from ASTM, International. Join in anytime!

Little Yogis: Wednesdays at 10AM. Using age appropriate games and storytelling, this class gives your child tools to help regulate their nervous systems in these uncertain times. Aimed at children walking-age to preK.

Virtual Book Groups at CFL

Join the conversation in one of our book discussion groups. This month, we have two really interesting titles. Copies of these books are available to borrow from the circulation desk at our library—just call to arrange porch pickup or stop by when we are open.

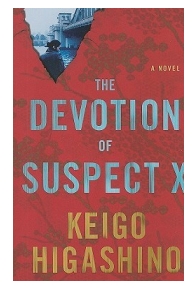

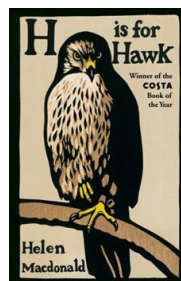

If you are new to our groups, please register here for the Zoom invitation.
