Holiday Cookie Baking class

Saturday, Dec. 5 at 10AM

Let's bake together, in our own kitchens! Jump start your holiday cookie baking this year as we host Kathy from Kitchen Wizards and work with her to make two different cookie recipes. This class is aimed at adults as the primary participants, but kids are welcome to join in as helpers. Register early as class size is limited.

Get to know ... our digital books & magazines!

Thursday, Dec. 17 at 7PM

Borrowing digital books, audiobooks, & magazines from the library is easy. In this program, we show off all we have for adults & kids, and help you get started. You may never buy a Kindle book again! Learn about Libby, Overdrive, RBDigital, & Tumblebooks. Please register.

"Read More About it" book request form

Submit our online form to get a librarian's help finding books on specific topics that are most appropriate for the age & reading level of your students. Let us help fill your home classroom bookshelves. Perfect for new homeschoolers, or families who just want to "read more about it!"

Take the 1,000 book Challenge!

If you read just one book a day with your child, that's 365 books in a year. And YES, repeat reads count! Before you know it, your child will have 1,000 books! Sign up at <https://mcnpl.beanstack.org/> to log your books, and
