July 2021

Virtual book groups

Join the conversation in our book groups! Books are held at the circulation desk at our library. If you are new to our groups, please email us at conshylibrary@gmail.com. Our meetings for July are IN PERSON, but outside. If you would rather Zoom, let us know and we will "patch you in!"

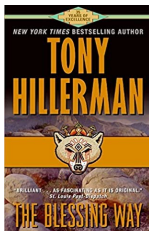

CFL Book Club, Wed., July 21, 7PM

This month's book is My Ex-Life, by Stephen McCauley.

Mysterious Saturdays Sat., July 24, 11AM

We continue our trip around the world through mystery novels. This month, we are in the Navajo Nation in the American Southwest. Our book is The Blessing Way, by Tony Hillerman.

Stuffie Sleepover!

Wed July 28 -Thurs July 29

Stuffed Animals are taking over the library and having a party! See more details HERE.

Summer Reading! June 12–August 14!

Montgomery County-Norristown Public Library & its branches are using the Beanstack platform again this year. Track your reading and log activities at mcnpl.beanstack.org. Paper logs are available too.

Beanstack has something for everyone –Young Children, Children, Teens and Adults. We offer activities specially designed for each age group. Everything you do on Beanstack unlocks badges, and earns you chances to win a prize at the end of the summer. The Friends of Conshohocken Free Library have prizes for readers of all ages—watch our social media as we feature them each week in July!

July Summer Reading events @ Conshohocken Free Library:

Weekly Themes & Grab'n Go Crafts:

- Watch recorded read-alouds to fit with a weekly theme.
- Pick up craft packs with supplies & directions to help kids make a project to fit with our theme of the week. Packs will be available to pick up at the library starting on Monday and continuing through the week, while supplies last.

Register for these special events being offered virtually:
